WHY IT MATTERS:

Businesses already care about:

- Social causes
- Community involvement
- Employee volunteering programs

And they know this helps save money to attract and retain talented employees in the next generation.

Yet, business leaders ask:

- How do we get started?
- How do we sustain employees in volunteer programs?
- How do we design a wonderful experience?

PROACT'S RISING STAR LEADERSHIP PROGRAM provides the structure and systems you need to do all this and more –

WE'VE GOT YOU COVERED!

Our robust program not only answers these three questions...

More importantly, we develop people as social impact leaders who truly make a difference during this 24-week small group cohort – because:

“Programs don't change people, people change people.”
